

LACUS FORUM 49 MANUSCRIPT GUIDELINES (2023)

Editors:

Gaby Semaan (gaby.semaan@utoledo.edu)

Erika Marcet (erika.marcet@ul.ie)

Kasumi Yamazaki (kasumi.yamazaki@utoledo.edu)

Abstract: Please include an abstract of maximum 150 words. Authors should make every attempt to adhere to the guidelines stated here. The guide is accompanied by a sample paper, which is included here in the same document.

Keywords: Include a maximum of 5 keywords separated by commas. For example: LACUS, Linguistic Association of Canada and the United States, author guide, style guide

Languages: English, French and any others dealt with in the presented papers.

1. SUBMISSION. All manuscripts submitted for publication in LACUS Forum volumes (with the exception of invited lectures) are peer-reviewed. They will be reviewed by two or three referees. In most cases the reviews will provide specific instructions or suggestions for changes. When you submit your paper, you will receive confirmation from the editorial team that it has been received in good order.

2. DEADLINES. Please put them on your calendar. If you cannot meet the deadlines below, please let us know as far in advance as possible.

DEADLINE	DATE
Authors Submit Manuscripts to Editors	OCT 4, 2024
Editors Send Reviewer Feedback to Authors	NOV 4, 2024
Authors Send Revisions to Editors	DEC 13, 2024
Editors Make PDF proofs Available to Authors	JAN 20, 2025
Authors Make Corrections to PDF proofs	FEB 21, 2025

To submit your paper, send it in DOC or DOCX format to Erika Marcet at erika.marcet@ul.ie. Only papers presented at the 2023 LACUS Conference are eligible for submission.

3. LICENSE. LACUS Forum does not publish papers already published elsewhere. LACUS Forum is published under the Creative Commons Attribution-Noncommercial License, which can be found at <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc/3.0/>. This license assigns the copyright to LACUS, but allows you to reproduce your paper in part or in whole for any non-commercial purpose.

If you wish to include your paper in whole or in part for any purpose which might be classified as commercial, you will need to obtain permission from LACUS in advance.

4. PEER REVIEW. Your paper will be reviewed by two or three referees. The Managing Editor will send you the reviewers' comments. In most cases, the reviews will provide specific instructions or suggestions for changes. If you fail to make revisions described by reviewers as required, your paper will not be published in the Forum.

5. FORMAT. Papers must be submitted in a Microsoft Word DOC or DOCX file. The first page should include the paper's title, the names and affiliations of authors, an abstract (150 words), a list of keywords, a list of languages the paper concerns, and the start of the main text. We ask you to follow the Unified Style Guide for both referencing and formatting your research paper.

6. LENGTH. The maximum length of a LACUS paper is 12 pages, in the required format, including title, list of authors, abstract, keywords, tables, figures, footnotes, references, and appendices. If you use smaller margins, smaller than 12-point Roman font, or unreadably small tables or figures, your paper will be returned to you for reformatting. Refer to the attached sample pages.

7. USE OF COPYRIGHTED MATERIAL. If you reproduce any copyright materials such as figures, audio-visual elements, or images in your work, you are responsible to obtain copyright clearance for those materials, including the payment of any relevant fees. The editors will assist you in this matter as needed, but you must inform them if anything you are including in your submission will require such clearance. If you are unsure about the copyright status of an item, please inform the editors.